

STAFF BENEFITS AND REWARDS POLICY

Policy statement

As the success of York Childcare (YC) relies on the talent and contribution of all staff, this policy sets out the employment benefits available to all staff. In addition, it explains how staff are valued and rewarded for particular contributions and achievements associated with their employment.

Staff rewards

These are all aspects of an employee's remuneration package including pay, benefits, recognition awards and other intangible benefits such as working environment and career development.

Principles

YC's rewards policy and practice reflects the aspirations of the Strategic Plan in seeking to attract and retain staff who can deliver a high quality childcare service.

The organisation's approach to reward is informed by the following principles:

- YC aims to be clear about what people are paid for and why and to be consistent, systematic and transparent in applying a reward policy.

- YC aims to reward people for their knowledge, skills and contribution in the roles they are performing.
- The need for effective financial management informs all aspects of the reward policy and approach and makes the most effective use of resources.
- YC's reward policy upholds the principles of equity and complies with all legal and fiscal requirements. It aims to be as simple as possible and to minimise levels of bureaucracy.

Rewards

YC considers that all staff are rewarded through payment of a salary in accordance with an agreed salary structure. Salary rates are reviewed annually by Trustees. Structural reviews are undertaken from time-to-time to reflect changes to job roles and responsibilities, changes in legislation and to reflect changes to achieve 'best practice' within the early years sector.

Additionally, YC is keen to recognize and reward outstanding contribution, effort and achievement made by individuals and by teams, in its attempt to reinforce organisational values, behaviours and operating principles, fostering a spirit of "one for all and all for one".

The policy applies to all staff (permanent, part time, supply staff).

The objectives of the YC Reward and Recognition Scheme are:

- To foster a "thank you" and appreciation culture overall
- To tangibly reward employees in a small way (i.e. on a very small budget on a close to -time basis)
- To highlight the behaviours the organisation would like to see emulated by other employees
- To reassure employees that while Trustees of YC appreciate employees' ongoing commitment to the organisational goals, they especially value when employees go above and beyond what is expected.

Recognition

Recognition simply involves saying thank you, either verbally or in writing by email or with a thank you card.

Responsibilities

The YC accountant must be consulted prior to purchase of any gifts other than the 'standard' flowers, plants, chocolates, cakes or biscuits to avoid any breach of benefit in kind regulations.

Salary Sacrifice Schemes

Certain benefits are available in exchange for a portion of salary – these benefits are known as Salary Sacrifice Schemes and may be used for the following purposes:

- Childcare Vouchers
- Cycle to Work Scheme

Participating in a Salary Sacrifice Scheme reduces the amount of NI and/or tax employees pay. As a result, Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) impose rules upon the scheme.

1. Employees must sign up to a salary exchange scheme for a minimum of twelve months. The agreement can then only be altered if staff experience one of a number of recognised lifestyle changes (see Appendix A).
2. A salary exchange cannot be allowed to reduce pay below the National Minimum Wage, the Lower Earnings Limit for NICs

Exchange of salary to participate in a Salary Sacrifice Scheme must be requested in writing to the General Manager and a written letter of confirmation must be provided to confirm the agreement. Depending on when a request is submitted it could take between one and two months to receive the selected benefit or make a change to existing benefits. Letters of request for Salary Sacrifice must be submitted to Head Office at least two weeks before the date of payroll processing. In certain circumstances (eg when a decision is required from the Management Board), processing may not be possible until the following month.

Benefit selection timescales

Existing staff will normally select / review their benefits once a year in March, to take effect from April. However new starters and those who have experienced a significant change in their personal circumstances can select or change their benefits at other times.

Death In Service

YC does NOT offer any Death in Service benefits for employees.
